

Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra is proud to present on July 10th at Cadogan Hall London, a concert featuring the UK Première of Arirang, arguably Korea's most popular and well-known folk-song. Arranged by Korean national Jae Eun Park, this concert will also featured an outstanding and specially gifted Korean conductor, Maestro Young Chil Lee.

"Maestro Young Chil Lee has a special gift for making music an exciting adventure, whether it is through his teaching or conducting. Those who have experienced his genuine warmth and intense enthusiasm for music may attest to the deeper understanding and heightened emotional experiences they have discovered under his musical direction."

Classical "Music journal" Korea

"Young Chil Lee conducted the orchestra with incredible facility and nobleness. With his musical body and soul he motivated the orchestra and led them to amazing achievements."

"Mlada Fronta" Prague

July 10th, Cadogan Hall, Sloane Terrace, London SW1X 9DQ, 7.30pm

The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra is London's most famous orchestra offering concerts in the intimate and luxurious venue, Cadogan Hall. This unique Classical Experience, offers a concert of fire, passion and romance with a evening devoted to the music of Tchaikovsky. Internationally acclaimed Korean conductor, Young Chil Lee conducts Tchaikovsky's Cossack-dancing Concerto, accompanied by the grand finale of his fifth symphony. To begin this concert, Koran's most well-known folk-song, arranged for full orchestra, Airiang.

Tickets £35, £28, £20, £10

Telephone Booking: 020 7730 4500

Online Bookings: www.cadoganhall.com